

4 Choose the correct verb forms in these conversations. Sometimes both are possible.

A: I feel terrible.

B: Well, if you (1) will stay / stay out until three in the morning, what do you expect?

A: I don't think I'll go to school today.

B: But supposing they (2) phone / would phone to find out where you are? What shall I tell them?

A: Okay, I'll go – if it (3) will make / makes you happy.

A: You're still here! I thought you'd left this morning.

B: If it (1) didn't snow / wasn't snowing so much, (2) I'd have left / I'd leave ages ago.

A: But it wasn't snowing this morning. If (3) you'd got up / you got up earlier, you (4) could get / could have got there easily.

B: Okay, okay. I'll go now.

A: No, you shouldn't drive if it (5) will be / is dangerous.

B: Right, I'll stay here then!
