- 3) Last month we asked you about Friends. How do you make Friends? What makes a Good friend? Read and answer the questions.

I'm a shy person, but I have a lot of good friends. How did I make them? It was easy! You see, I'm a member of the school soccer team. The boys on the team are very friendly. They love talking about soccer—and girls! I don't like talking in front of a lot of people, but it doesn't matter: when we're together, the others talk and I listen!

Adam, 15

I love meeting new people, but it isn't easy in my small town. We don't have a gym or a movie theater. My friends and I meet in the town café. We talk and make plans for our future. They help me when I have problems, and I help them. We laugh and joke around. I like that. The worst thing for me is a moody friend, because I'm always cheerful.

Diana, 14

I love music, and I enjoy hanging out with other music fans. I also play the guitar in a band. We're practicing later this evening, and we usually have fun together. A good sense of humor is the most important thing for me, and my friends and I laugh at the same jokes. But my best friends are my dogs, Jimmy and Timmy. Dogs are fantastic friends because they always love you, they're always cheerful, and they're never, ever selfish.
