

Boy: What are we going to do in our lesson today, Miss Gold?

Woman: We're going to talk about the class visit to Sunny Farm, David.

Boy: Great! When are we going to go?

Woman: Next Monday. Write it down, then you won't forget.

Boy: OK.

Can you see the answer? Now you listen and write.

Woman: We're going to meet the farmer there.

Boy: What's his name? Do you know?

Woman: Yes. It's Mr. Boyles. That's B-O-Y-L-E-S.

Boy: OK. I've written that down too. What does he grow there? Vegetables?

Woman: No. He grows flowers and then he sells them to people in other countries.

Boy: Wow. I've never seen that kind of farm before. Is it a big farm, Miss Gold, with lots of fields?

Woman: Well, David, he has thirty-five fields. It's a very interesting farm to visit.

Boy: Great. But what will we do there?

Woman: I'd like you to do some drawing there.

We'll learn about his work first and then he's going to show you his insects.

They're his hobby. I want you all to draw them.

Boy: Oh! I don't like them. Do we have to do that?

Woman: Yes. They aren't dangerous ones, David!

The farmer keeps them in big boxes in his house. You don't have to pick them up if you don't want to.

Boy: Good! And are we going to go to the farm by car?

Woman: We thought about that, but then we decided not to. We're going to go in the school bus.

Boy: That sounds exciting!

Woman: Yes, it'll be a good day, I'm sure.
