

PHRASAL VERBS ACTIVITY

Reading comprehension activity on article

<https://www.parents.com/kids/development/behavioral/when-teens-make-out-in-public/>

Take in	To happen
Make out	To make something less forceful or offensive , usually a piece of writing or a speech :
take on	to start to talk about a particular subject :
Tone down	To decide to do sth that takes a lot of effort , time
Go on	To kiss passionately
Bring up	To understand completely the meaning or importance of something.

Reading comprehension activity

a) What concern was brought to the blog by the parent?

- 1) Their daughter's sexuality.
- 2) Their daughter's public displays of affection.
- 3) The parent's difficulty to talk openly about sex with their daughter.
- 4) The parent's ignorance in terms of sex education.

b) What advice did Jan Faull, give to the parent in the blog?

- 1) Parents should not allow their daughter to have any physical contact with her boyfriend
- 2) Parents should scold their child for making out in public.
- 3) Parents should have an conversation about PDAs with their daughter
- 4) Parents should ask their daughter if she's having sex with her boyfriend.

c) What type of PDA's seemed inappropriate for the parent from the blog?

- 1) Hugging constantly
- 2) Holding hands
- 3) Kissing passionately

d) How does picking one's nose have to do with PDAs?

- 1) Both actions should never be practiced in public.
- 2) Parents should chide their children for doing either of them
- 3) Doing them in public may seem offensive to some people.