1.Read the following text and complete each gap with a suitable form of the verbs in brackets. Use past or present tenses. Remember! With direct speech: PRESENT OR FUTURE TENSES.

Mark's birthday _____ (be) last Friday and, Tom and his friends _____ (want) to make him the best birthday in the world!
Then, to do that, they _____ (contact) a summer camp.
The idea _____ (be) to spend 30 days there, doing some fun stuff. They _____ (know) Mark _____ (want) to go to a summer camp a long time ago.
The day _____ (arrive) and, while Mark _____ (enter) Tom's house, everyone just _____ (appear)!

-"Mark! We _____ (be) here to wish you a really happy birthday!
We _____ (love) you so much!"

Then, everyone _____ (sing) the song when Tom _____ (decide) to tell Mark their surprise for him.

-"Mark! You better be ready because in two days we _____ (go) to a summer camp, yeah!"

Once Mark _____ (hear) that, he _____ (start) to cry.

-"Oh boys, thank you very much! You _____ (be) the best friends of the world!"

They _____ (continue) with the party, but, just when Mark _____ (cut) his cake, someone _____ (knock) at the door.

-"Who may it be?" asked Mark.
-"I _____ (not know), I _____ (not invite) anyone else." answered Tom, a little frightened.

After he _____ (say) that, Mark _____ (go) to the door, _____ (open) it and…

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2."Who may it be?" Complete the story.

3.Are these sentences true or false? Correct the false ones.

1.Mark wanted to go to a summer camp a month ago.

2.They don't know if they are going to go to the summer camp yet.

3.Tom decided to tell Mark their surprise after they finished singing to Mark.

4. Mark started to cry while he was hearing his surprise.

5.Tom was a little bit scared at the end of the story.

6.Mark went to the door once he finished talking with Tom.

LIVEWORKSHEETS