

DO, PLAY or GO with free time activities

DO

- sports ending in -ics
- martial arts
- recreational activities
- non-team sports

PLAY

- team sports
- ball sports
- games
- an instrument (the ...)

GO

- with the gerund form of the verb (-ing).
- go somewhere to do something

EXCEPTIONS

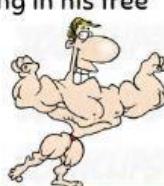

DO: boxing, body-building, weightlifting, fencing, (some) running (on a treadmill), the shopping (for food), the gardening

Complete each sentence with the Present Simple of DO, PLAY or GO

They rarely _____ shopping together.

He _____ body-building in his free time.

He _____ scuba diving every summer.

She _____ field hockey on Tuesdays.

He _____ running very often. He's fast.

Rita _____ rugby with her dad.

She _____ karate twice a week.

John and Paul _____ in a rock band.

My uncle George _____ golf during the weekend.

They _____ weightlifting together every day.

My aunt _____ Bingo every week..

He often _____ bird-watching in the country.

They _____ baseball on Sundays.

Monica _____ bowling on Fridays.

Jim and his friends _____ American football.

They _____ judo in the local gym.

Dad _____ fishing in the river.

The children often _____ blind man's bluff with their dad.

He _____ canoeing when he can.

Mr Flynn _____ gymnastics in the morning.

They _____ camping every year.

My mum _____ yoga before breakfast.

He _____ dodge ball at school.

They _____ on holiday in August.

He _____ boxing in his spare time.

Dad often _____ chess with his best friend.

Mary _____ jogging to keep fit.

She _____ tennis but she isn't very good.

My daughter _____ ballet once a week.

Aunt Sue _____ the gardening in the afternoon.

