

6

OK. No problem!

1 Write responses to these requests. Use it or them.

- Please take out the trash.
OK, I'll take it out.
- Please put the dishes away.
- Hang up the towels.
- Turn off the lights, please.
- Turn on the radio.

2 Two-part verbs

A Use the words in the box to make two-part verbs. (You may use words more than once.)

away down off on out up

- clean up
- hang _____
- let _____
- pick _____
- put _____
- take _____
- take _____
- throw _____
- turn _____
- turn _____

B Make requests with the two-part verbs in part A. Then give a reason for making the request.

- Please clean up your room. It's dirty.
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

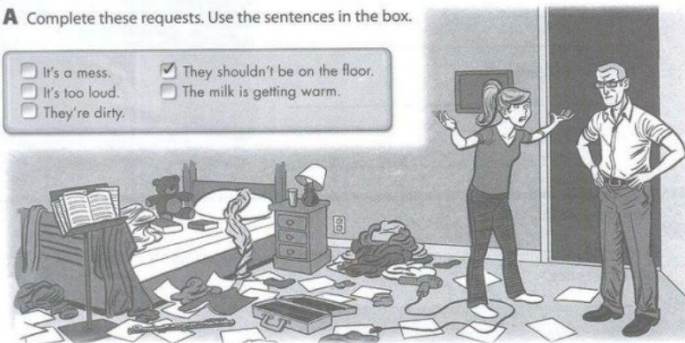

3 Choose the correct word.

- Hang up your coat. (books / coat / trash)
- Take out the _____. (groceries / trash / yard)
- Turn down the _____. (garbage / TV / toys)
- Pick up your _____. (lights / things / yard)
- Put away your _____. (clothes / microwave / dog)
- Turn on the _____. (magazines / mess / radio)

4 What's your excuse?

A Complete these requests. Use the sentences in the box.

- ☐ It's a mess. ☒ They shouldn't be on the floor.
☐ It's too loud. ☐ The milk is getting warm.
☐ They're dirty.

- Pick up your clothes, please. They shouldn't be on the floor.
- Please put the groceries away. _____
- Take your shoes off. _____
- Clean up the kitchen, please. _____
- Turn down the music. _____

B Write an excuse for each request in part A.

- Sorry, but there isn't enough room in my closet.
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____