

HOW DO ANIMALS KEEP WARM IN THE WINTER?

Answer these multiple choice questions: Click on the correct answers.

1. How many layers does most fur have?

Most fur has two layers.

Most fur has one layer.

2. What is down?

Down is like a jacket of very fluffy feathers.

Down is a layer of fat.

3. How do animals that live near water keep warm?

They have blubber.

They smear their natural oils all over them.

4. How do whales keep warm?

They do exercise.

They lie in the sun.

They have blubber.

5. Why does snuggling keep animals warm?

They share body heat.

They only have one blanket.

6. What do mice do to keep warm?

They tunnel into the snow.

They lie on the snow.

They have down.

7. What do human beings do to keep warm?

They use clothes and heat.

They have blubber.

They migrate.

8. The rabbit is an example of an animal which grows a winter coat to keep them extra warm?

Yes, it is.

No, it isn't.

9. Some animals move to warmer countries in the winter. What is this called?

This is called insulation.

This is called migration.

10. When an animal sleeps all winter. This is called?

This is called insulation.

This is called migration.

This is called hibernation.