

A. Write the opposite of the adjectives by adding a negative prefix: dis-, il-, in- or un-.

- |                     |                       |
|---------------------|-----------------------|
| 1. _____ correct    | 7. _____ honest       |
| 2. _____ expensive  | 8. _____ legal        |
| 3. _____ pleasant   | 9. _____ patient      |
| 4. _____ attractive | 10. _____ polite      |
| 5. _____ possible   | 11. _____ responsible |
| 6. _____ successful | 12. _____ safe        |

B. Complete the sentences with the adjectives above, with or without a negative prefix.

- I had a/n _____ feeling that I was going to fail the exam.
- Tina is so _____. That's why I can't help looking at her.
- You shouldn't swim in that lake. I don't think it is _____.
- We believe everything Mike tells us. He is always _____.
- Jean killed his boss? This sounds _____. He was with us all day!
- Don't get _____. The bus will be here any minute.
- Petrol is becoming more and more _____. I'll use public transport more often.
- It's simply _____ to say that tobacco advertising does not influence young people.
- It was very _____ of him not to say "Hello" when he arrived.
- Substances like steroids and other drugs are _____. Athletes can't use them.
- Luckily, Lisa's second attempt at making bread was more _____ than her first try.
- Although Jack was ill at the time, he was still _____ for his actions.