

Phrasal verbs

Acá tenemos una pequeña muestra de ellos:

Bring up (mencionar algo)	Come in (entrar)
Call off (cancelar)	Cheer up (animar)
Drop by (visitar, pasar)	Come across (encontrarse con)
Fall down (caerse)	Cope with (enfrentarse con)
Fall apart (romper en pedazos)	Deal with (tratar con)
Fill up (llenar)
Get up (levantarse)
Give up (rendirse, abandonar)
Go out (with) (salir con alguien)
Grow up (crecer)
Get along with (llevarse bien con)
Get rid of (deshacerse de)

He likes to _____ bad pass experiences all the time.

The boss wants to _____ the meeting.

If you want to, you can _____. We have a party today.

I need to _____ these feelings of hate and resentment.

Never _____. I know sometimes things can be very difficult!

You must _____ the form before you enter.

You are acting like a child, you need to _____.

Don't _____ your old sneakers. You need them for practice tomorrow.

L5 | U1

1. Stereotype
2. Diversity
3. Nationality
4. Frustration / frustrated
5. Unusual
6. Unpredictable
7. Anxiety
8. Self-confidence

Carlos has a lot _____. He feels he can do anything.

What is your _____? My is American

This is very _____. It happens only every two years.

Dogs can be very _____ if they are hungry.

If you have too much _____ talk to a professional.

In this class _____ is highly valued because we do not _____ students.