Grammar 1A
There is / There are

Complete the description with is, isn't, are and aren't.

The Hotel Chelsea in New York is famous. It's well-known for its guests – artists, musicians and writers – and there (1) _____ examples of their work on the walls.

There (2) _____ different types of rooms at the hotel, with different facilities. There (3) _____ cable television in all rooms, but there (4) _____ a bath in every room – some rooms share a bath with another room.

It's an old hotel, so there (5) _____ a swimming pool and there (6) _____ any facilities for business people, for example a meeting room. But it's in the centre of New York, and it's an interesting place to stay.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Grammar 1B
There is / There are

Complete the conversation with the correct form of there is and there are.

A: World Star Hotel, how can I help you?

B: I'd like some information about the hotel. For example, (1) there is / there are / is there a heated swimming pool?

A: Yes, (2) there is / there are / is there. There's a heated pool indoors, and a cold pool outdoors.

B: (3) Is there / Are there / There are good views of the sea?

A: (4) Yes, there aren't / there are / are there. All rooms have sea views.

B: (5) There is / Is there / Are there a gym?

A: (6) No, isn't there / there isn't / there aren't, I'm afraid.

B: (7) Are there / There are / There aren't any guided tours for us to go on?

A: Yes. (8) There is / There are / Are there guided tours of the city every day.

B: Great. I'd like to make a reservation.

LIVEWORKSHEETS