

Part 2 – Read the definitions below and fill in the blanks with the appropriate words from the table.

grin (noun) – a wide smile	leap (noun) – a big jump, a large increase or change
counterfeit (verb) - to copy something exactly in order to deceive people, to fake	leak (verb) - to become known despite efforts at concealment, to be the source of an information leak countenance (noun) – literary your face or your expression	conceal (verb) – to hide something carefully strained (adj.) - a strained situation or behavior is not relaxed, natural, or friendly, tense	crinkle (verb) - if you crinkle part of your face, or if it crinkles, you move it so that small lines appear on it
grief (noun) – extreme sadness, something that makes you feel extremely sad	scowl (noun) - an angry or disapproving expression on someone's face, frown

- 1) He threw a stick in the river and the dog went after it in a flying _____.
- 2) After the shock, all color drained from her _____.
- 3) It's sad, but there are civil servants who _____ information to the press.
- 4) She tried to _____ the fact that she was pregnant.
- 5) The _____ she felt over Helen's death was almost unbearable.
- 6) She looked at me with a _____.
- 7) We must mark coins in a way that makes them harder to _____.
- 8) He came into the room with a friendly _____ on his face.
- 9) Their mouths _____ into smiles every time they see their dog.
- 10) I couldn't stand the _____ atmosphere at dinner anymore.