

The Client

Chapter 4: Lawyers and FBI Men

Match the two halves of each sentence.

1. When Mark's parents fought, Mark

2. He enjoyed smoking

3. When Dianne and Ricky were asleep

4. A lawyer was trying to convince

5. The man in the wheelchair left the lawyer's card

6. Foltrigg met McThune and Trumann

7. The detectives told Foltrigg

8. They believed Mark was lying because

9. Clifford's blood test showed

10. Clifford left a note for his secretary

11. He added some words at the bottom

12. Foltrigg wanted to be present his fingerprints were on Clifford's whisky bottle and on the tail pipe, on the table and Mark took it.

started sneaking out of their trailer.
when McThune and Trumann questioned Mark, Mark went down to the café, everything they knew about the Clifford' case, telling her what to do after his death,
a man in a wheelchair to hire his services.
mentioning Mark, which were illegible.
on the hill above the trailer park, high levels of alcohol and drugs.
at the FBI offices in Memphis.