

Relative clauses; relative pronouns and prepositions

- 1 Rewrite the sentences with relative pronouns and adverbs. If the pronoun / adverb can be omitted, put it in brackets. Add commas where necessary.

That's the book. I was telling you about it.

That's the book (which) I was telling you about.

1 Susan is travelling to Madrid next month. Her son is a doctor.

2 They are the people. They invited us to their party.

3 These are the diamonds. I bought them in Greece.

4 The day was 2 September. Our baby was born.

5 This jumper is too small. It was made by my mother.

6 This is the place. She met her boyfriend here.

- 2 Rewrite the sentence so that it has the same meaning as the first sentence. Use the bold words.

Peter, who did you send the email to? (to)

Peter, to whom did you send the email?

1 That's my father. I would do anything for him. (whom)

2 That's the hostel owner. I know very little about him. (about)

3 The hall we rented for the ceremony was very dirty. (which)

4 That man was late for work. (who)

5 Ali H is the singer. His song was in the top ten last week. (whose)

6 Pat's sculptures are in a museum. He's famous for them. (which)

7 The people who I went to the festival with are my cousins. (whom)