

| THEORY                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | EXERCISES                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | TRANSLATION                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| DEFINING RELATIVE CLAUSES – USES -A chef is a person who/that cooks → What this person does -A clock is an object which/that tells the time → What this thing does -A supermarket is a shop where/which you can buy food → What this place does | Complete the definitions with who, which or where: A bear is an animal which/that is dangerous to humans 1. The bedroom is the room _____ sleeping is simple 2. Black is a colour _____ is popular for wedding dresses | Un oso es un animal que/es peligroso para los humanos 1. El dormitorio es la habitación donde/en la que es sencillo dormir 2. El negro es un color que es popular para los vestidos de novia |

MÉTODO ISO - JMB