

Listen and practice!

First, a female butterfly lays her eggs on leaves or stems of plants.

Next, the egg hatches and the caterpillar leaves. In this stage the caterpillar eats all the time.

Then, the caterpillar forms itself into a pupa. This is the stage of transformation.

Finally, when the caterpillar changes inside the pupa, it becomes a butterfly.