

THEORY

MUST - USES

-I must study
for the exam

Internal obligation

-You must stop smoking

"Deberes a hacer" de una persona a otra (doctor, father...)

-I/you/he/she/it/
We/you/they must respect traffic rules

Same form

MUSTN'T - USES

-You musn't light
a fire in the forest

Prohibited

HAVE TO - USES

-You have to do your homework

Rules (school, business)

-I have to stop at the traffic signal

Law (traffic...)

-I have to do the reports

External obligation (si no lo haces habrá consecuencias)

DON'T HAVE TO - USES

-You don't have to come in disguise

No obligation
No necessity

EXERCISES	TRANSLATION
Choose the correct form: I don't have to/mustn't repair it, it's not broken 1. You have to/must to lock the door. There are a lot of robberies lately 2. My girlfriend has to/must replace her passport soon 3. You don't have to/mustn't come with me if you don't want to go	No tengo que repararlo, no está roto 1. Debes cerrar la puerta con llave, hay muchos robos últimamente. 2. Mi novia tiene que/debe cambiar su pasaporte pronto 3. No tienes que venir conmigo si no quieres ir

MÉTODO ISO - JMB