ED'S UNLUCKY DAY

Hi! My name's Ed Jones. I'm an architect and I work at home. I use my laptop a lot, but ...

1 My laptop [1] was very old, so last week I [2]_____ to the shopping centre to buy a new one.

2 I [3]_____ a lot of excellent laptops, but they [4]_____ all very expensive.

3 I [5]_____ the shopping centre, I [6]_____ in my car and I [7]_____ to the High Street.

4 I [8]_____ a friend in the High Street, and he [9]_____ me about a good shop that [10]_____ cheap laptops.

5 I went to the shop and I [11]_____ a lovely laptop for £399. The shop assistant [12]_____, 'It's a very good laptop and it's very cheap.'

6 I [13]_____ the laptop. I was very happy.

7 But last night I was on the internet and I saw my new laptop in a sale for only £299! I [14]_____ very sad.

2. Look at the words in the boxes. Pick one word from each box and write sentences using simple past. There is an example.

Si el verbo NO está en la lista de verbos irregulares, entonces es regular; por ende, sólamente se le agrega -ed al final. E.g.: watch*ed*.
