There Is Song - The Beautiful South

There's a bench in every 1._____ dedicated to Those who 2._____ there once but didn't make it through
There are names carved deep in bark on every tree
By those who spent their time like you and me

And wherever geography may place you 3._____
There's a piece of history all folk carry around
Whatever your situation, whatever it may allow
There's an even larger piece in every lost and found

There is 4._____, there's always a song
Wherever there's perfection there's a wrong
There's 5._____ song but a broken bond
And an unkissed frog in every village pond

There's a name that we graffiti'd up on a 6._____
To the folks who live there now, makes no sense at all
And in every underpass, on every 7._____
A promise someone made but couldn't keep

A tiny piece of chalk in every coat
In every 8._____ the smallest lump in throat
In every song you've sung in every novel read
That unkissed 9._____ will rear, rear its head

There is 10._____, there's always a song
Wherever there's perfection there's a wrong
There's 11._____ song but a broken bond
And an unkissed frog in every village pond
