

Complete the sentences with the correct prepositions.

- a) Mike works a computer company and he is responsible developing new software.
 - b) A year ago I graduated journalism and I've recently applied a job with the local newspaper.
 - c) As part of his job, John deals suppliers.
 - d) She studied Chinese and became proficient that language.
 - e) I was never very good communicating with people.
 - f) When I started working here, I received intensive training negotiations.
 - g) Philip is charge of our marketing department.
 - h) He was made redundant two years ago and he's been of work since then.
-
- a) What celebrities, influencers or YouTubers are popular teenagers now?
 - b) Do you think people who want to become famous Instagrammers are aware the disadvantages of such a career? Can you list any problems that they might experience?
 - c) How would you feel being recognised wherever you went?
 - d) Which well-known people from your country are you proud?
 - e) Do you know anyone who looks similar a famous person?
 - f) Are you fed up people who are famous for being famous?
 - g) Do you think that famous people are kind each other?
 - h) Have you heard of any celebrities who are worried global issues such as climate change?
 - i) Do you think famous people are responsible managing their own social media accounts, or do they employ social media managers?