FROM: Mr Stevens
SUBJECT: Learning English words

- B It is always difficult to remember new vocabulary.
- C You should not try to learn too many words at once.

Hi Jane

I went to see that car your friend is selling – it was very kind of you to send me the info, I'm really grateful. It's really good value, too, but I think I'll keep looking for a five-door model.

Tom

I watched that new programme you recommended – 30-minute Cook – and I'll definitely try a few of those recipes. I can't quite see why every cookery programme these days has to be a competition, but I suppose they think that's what viewers want.

Hi everyone

Just a reminder about the time for next week's book club – 8:30 at my place. And as we agreed at the last meeting, it would be great if everyone could actually read it this time. It would be nice to hear each other's opinions rather than everyone's excuses.

- C to inform them of a change in plan
