

Remind, include, complains, postpone, suppose, solve

I _____ that this homework should be about me and my life. And it will _____ all the words from our last lesson!

I often _____ my deals for later, I always _____ myself that it's good to do them in advance.

I accept this problem I can _____ with a time-management. My husband works for an IT company and he knows relevant methods for solving all working issues. But he often _____ to me that on making plans for the whole day he spends more time.

In addition I want to say that everything depends on us. Sometimes we might see different perspectives to normal situations.