THE FUTURE

Decisions	Intentions	Scheduled Plans

No, I haven't. I think I'll call Jane and see if she is free.	Not yet. I'm going to call Jane and see if she is free.	Yes, I'm having lunch with Jane on Wednesday.
WILL	BE (am - is - are) GOING TO	ING
• To state a new decision • To make a promise • To make an offer • To talk about predictions (without evidence - You think so)	• To talk about intentions • To talk about conclusions based on observations	• To talk about future arrangements (appointments /organized events)

- Where are you going?
- I'm meeting Susan at 7.
- we're having dinner at that new restaurant.
- I'm going to give it to Susan.
- She won't like it.
- I'll give her those flowers.
- She'll love them.
- I'll buy you some new flowers tomorrow.
- She really isn't going to like those flowers.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Watch the video and complete the conversation

-You look smart, Mark. Where are you ……..?

+I'm …… Susan at 7, we're …… dinner at that new restaurant.

-What's that?

+It's a robot! I'm …… …… give it to Susan.

-That's nice. What can that robot do?

+Well, It can wash the car, it can take the dog for a walk, and it can play football...

-She …… like it

+She won't?

-No, she won't

+Why not?

-Well... Susan doesn't have a car, she doesn't have a dog, and she hates football!!

+You're right. But I haven't got time to make her another present. I know, I'…… give her those flowers. She'…… love them.

-But those are my flowers. My boyfriend gave them to me.

+Don't worry Betty, I'…… buy you some new flowers tomorrow. Bye!

-But she really isn't …… …… like those flowers, you know!

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Organize the text in the right order.

+It's a robot! I'm going to give it to Susan. -That's nice. What can that robot do?
+Don't worry Betty, I'll buy you some new flowers tomorrow. Bye! -But she really isn't going to like those flowers, you know!
+Well, It can wash the car, it can take the dog for a walk, and it can play football... -She won't like it +She won't?
-You look smart, Mark. Where are you going? +I'm meeting Susan at 7, we're having dinner at that new restaurant. -What's that?
+You're right. But I haven't got time to make her another present. I know, I'll give her those flowers. She'll love them. -But those are my flowers. My boyfriend gave them to me.
-No, she won't +Why not? -Well... Susan doesn't have a car, she doesn't have a dog, and she hates football!!

LIVEWORKSHEETS