

4 Read and correct the text.

My teacher.

This is Mr Newton. He's my Maths teacher.

He works in a school in a big city. He's very sbyu because he's got a lot of work.

There are 28 children in my class. His lessons aren't wols or grinbo, they're very ecgitxin. We like his lessons because they're not fllaudfii. It 's yase to learn lots of new things with him.

Mr Newton's very fclareu when he writes;

but I'm not!

5 Write about one of your teachers.

6 Read and say their names.

Daisy

Fred

Mary

John

Paul

- 1 This child likes being busy with lots of homework. John
His hair is straight and black and he's got glasses.
- 2 This child loves Art and is careful at painting.
He's got short, brown curly hair.
- 3 The child with straight blonde hair thinks Art's boring.
Her pictures are terrible.
- 4 This child with glasses thinks Maths is exciting.
Her hair is black and curly.
- 5 This child with short curly blonde hair thinks Music's difficult.

7 Make sentences for your friend. Say and answer 'true' or 'false'.

The child with glasses thinks Maths is boring.

False.