

SUBJECT AND OBJECT PRONOUNS

Directions: Indicate whether the pronoun in each sentence is a subject or object pronoun.

- The students did extremely well on the exam, so the teacher rewarded them. subject object
- The class performed in the play, and they did very well. subject object
- Melvin entered the science fair; he won first place. subject object
- Emma performed at the concert; her mother is proud. subject object
- Mom ordered pizza for us! subject object

Directions: Choose the correct option needed to correct each sentence.

- Kim and me went to the park this afternoon.
 - Kim and I
 - Me and Kim
 - I and Kim
- Tyler and he want more ice cream and cake.
 - Him and Tyler
 - Tyler and him
 - He and Tyler
- I made lunch for mom and they.
 - they and Mom
 - mom and them
 - they and I
- Did you have fun at the playground with I and him?
 - me and him
 - They
 - he and me
- Grandma and her left the park because it was raining.
 - Them
 - Grandma and her
 - She and Grandma

Directions: Choose the correct pronoun from the word to complete each sentence. Drag and drop the correct answer.

I you me this us my they we her your he them your him ours

- Mary wants to talk to _____ about her homework.
- The boxes are carrying wood. _____ are heavy!
- Alice says she gave _____ my sunglasses. Have you got _____?
- He lied to _____ before. He may do it again.
- That is Sam's brother, I know _____ well. _____ is in my class.

Directions: Match the sentences in Column A to those in Column B to form one complete sentence.

Column A

- The cub is miserable.
- Is Maggie in her bedroom?
- The extension stopped working.
- Those jeans are horrible!
- Those exercises are quite difficult.

Column B

- I haven't seen her.
 We have to replace it.
 I hate them.
 I don't understand them.
 He is missing his mother.

