

The Revolutions of 1848; concepts and vocabulary

If we are going to discuss the revolutions of 1848, we need to understand a lot of the ideas and social changes that led to the turmoil of this year.

A single ruler, especially a king is called a _____ A country ruled by such a ruler is a _____
A king or queen who has complete power over their country is called _____
A king or queen who can rule their country only with the permission of an elected government is called _____
A country where there is no king and the government are chosen is called a _____
A system where the people of the country control the government is called _____
A set of rules for what a government must or must not do is called a _____
A system where the people are ruled by lords who own the land where they live is called _____
A person who is owned by a master and forced to work is called a _____. A system allowing this is called _____.
A system based on private businesses making, buying and selling goods is called _____
The process where making goods by factories and machinery replace goods made by craftsmen is called _____
The food shortages during the 1840s was known as _____	