Imray Came Back
(pages 14-20)

Mark the true statements.

1. Imray was a lonely man.
2. Nobody noticed his disappearance.
3. His belongings were sold and his house remained empty.
4. Strickland was the narrator's boss.
5. Strickland moved into Imray's house.
6. Tietjens was a police dog.
7. Strickland put up the narrator as there were no vacancies at the hotel.
8. Tietjens was friendly with the narrator when he arrived.
9. Bahadur Khan was Strickland's Persian servant.
10. Bahadur Khan told the narrator that a man wanted to see him.
11. The narrator caught a glimpse of a face outside.
12. The face was of a man looking for shelter from the rain.
13. Tietjens stood in the rain refusing to go inside.
14. Strickland said Tietjens had been behaving like this since they moved in.
15. From that night on the narrator couldn't get a good night's sleep.
16. Both the narrator and Tietjens felt uneasy in the house day and night.
17. The narrator wanted to leave but Strickland persuaded him to stay on for a couple of days.
18. Strickland spotted the head of a vey poisonous snake in the ceiling.

LIVEWORKSHEETS