My name is Bruno and I live in Buenos Aires, Argentina. It's a beautiful, busy city full of life
It's on the River Plate and it is the capital city.
There are a lot of things to see and do. You can visit the museums, watch a play at the theatre, have dinner or lunch at the restaurants or you can walk down the parks and admire the monuments.
There are also big shopping centres and a number of squares with fountains. There are some old train stations, you can travel by train, bus or underground.
We also have big stadiums where you can watch football matches if you are the sporty type
