

Internet Safety

Read these comments. Decide whether you can / mustn't/should do them.
Add some of your ideas.

- | | |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> 1.chat with family and friends 2.tell people when you are going on holiday 3.listen to favourite songs 4.share your bank details 5.see what your friends are up to 6.click on links from people you don't know | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> 7.share funny videos from people you know 8.share information with people you don't know online 9. think carefully about what you post 10.set some limits on using social networks 11.post personal information – telephone number/address/bank details |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

What you CAN do in a social network	What you MUSTN'T do in a social network	What you SHOULD do in a social network
Add your own ideas here		