

TASK 4:

For the questions 1-6, read the conversation between Friends in a restaurant. Match the underlined sentences with the functions listed A-G. There is one extra option you do not need.

Conversation:

Janet: This meal really isn't nice. Nothing's fresh and everything tastes a bit strange.

Chris: Yes, you're right. (1) We could complain to the manager.

Janet: (2) That's a bit rude, isn't it? Maybe we could ask the manager for something else.

Chris: (3) Are you saying you'd like the same dish again?

Janet: No, that's really not a good idea. (4) It would probably be as bad as this one.

Chris: But it's better than nothing.

Janet: (5) True.

Chris: OK, call the waiter and tell him.

Janet: Oh no, not me. (6) I hate doing those kind of things.

Functions:

- A) predicting
