TYPES OF PUNISHMENT

Match the parts of the sentences.

Corporal punishment	supervised release to the community
Incarceration	less serious crimes
Fine	a monetary penalty imposed on an offender and paid to the court
Restitution	the practice of requiring offenders to financially compensate crime victims for the damage the offenders caused
Probation	the infliction of physical pain
Parole	performing services for the state or community
Community service	execution of an offender
Capital punishment	confinement in jail or prison for a period of time
Felonies	obtaining an early release from incarceration while remaining free, provided an offender meets certain conditions
Misdemeanours	more serious crimes