Kinds of Sentences

There are four different kinds of sentences. Each serves a different purpose.
A declarative sentence makes a statement. It ends with a period.

Jack shaded his eyes. Miami is usually warm.

An interrogative sentence asks a question. It ends with a question mark.

Did you pay a deposit? Where is Bolivia?

An imperative sentence tells someone to do something. It ends with a period.

Turn right. Please shut the window.

An exclamatory sentence expresses strong emotion. It ends with an exclamation mark.

What a close call you had! Call an ambulance!

Recognize kinds of sentences. Put the right punctuation after each sentence. Write Declarative, Interrogative, Imperative, or Exclamatory on the blank to show what kind of sentence each one is.
