

there is / there are; some and any

I can use there is / are and some / any correctly.

- 1 Choose There's or There are to complete the sentences. Are the sentences true or false for you? Correct the false sentences.

- There's / There are four people in my home.
True / False
- At my school, there's / there are a gym.
True / False
- There's / There are a swimming pool in my town.
True / False
- There's / There are six letters in my first name.
True / False
- There's / There are a lot of shops in my town.
True / False
- There's / There are a beach near my house.
True / False

- 2 Complete the sentences with some or any.

- We haven't got  milk for the cereal.
- I don't want  lettuce in my sandwiches.
- We need  olives for this recipe.
- Please buy  mushrooms at the supermarket.
- I can't see  prawns in the fridge.
- Have we got  large tomatoes?
- Have  rice with your chicken.
- Are we having  fish at the barbecue?

- 3 Make the sentences negative. Be careful with some and any.

- There's some chicken in the fridge.
There isn't any chicken in the fridge.
- I want some prawns on my pizza.
- I'm eating some melon with my breakfast.
- There's a pineapple on the table.
- There are some tomatoes in the shopping bag.
- I want an egg for breakfast.
- I've got some apples.
- There are some sandwiches for your friends.

- 4 Put the words in the correct order to make questions. Then look at the picture above and write short answers.

- is / fish / any / there
Is there any fish?
Yes, there is.
- sandwiches / there / any / are
?
- are / mushrooms / any / there
?
- a / is / chicken / there
?
- is / pineapple / there / a
?
- prawns / there / any / are
?

- 5 Complete the questions about your English classroom. Use the interrogative form of there is / are and any or a / an. Then write short answers.

- Are there any windows?
Yes, there are. / No, there aren't.
- bin in the room?
- whiteboard?
- shelves on the walls?
- table for the teacher?
- cupboards?
- computer?