How to use the preposition from

From Note - this is 5 of 14 categories	To Note - this list excludes phrasal verbs
1. To show the origin of someone or something She drove from her house in Montreal to her office in Laval. My new co-worker comes from Alberta.	1. To show the destination We will fly to Toronto on Monday. I often cycle to work in the summer. Sandra drove to the cottage yesterday.
2. To show who sent or gave something to someone. I received a letter from my brother yesterday.	2. Attached to the verb go or went My son goes to Felix LeClaire High School. I always go to the gym on Wednesdays. We went to my in laws house with the kids last night.
3. To show when something starts. The shop is open from 8am to 2pm today. He was blind from birth.	3. To show an expression of time Lisa worked to 5pm and left. Our office stays open to 10pm on week nights.
4. To show distance between two places. I live far from the highway.	4. To as an infinitive of purpose We spent a lot of money to hire extra help.
5. To show a range The temperatures in Quebec range from -30 to +30 degrees celsius, depending on the season.

Fill in the blanks using to or from. Note any vocabulary you do not understand.

On Vacation

This week, half my team is going on vacation. Our vacation period usually goes ___ June __ August. I will wait for most of my team ___ return ___ their breaks before taking my time off. This year, my family and I plan ___ visit my parents in New York City. We are originally ___ New York.

My kids love visiting New York. They talk ___ all the neighbors who come ___ around the world. They also enjoy the late nights with all restaurants and other attractions opening ___ morning ___ night.

Every year, my parents give my kids a new book ___ read on the drive back home. At home, they have a shelf of books that came ___ only grandma and grandpa. It certainly helps ___ pass the time during the long car ride home.

Looking For New Employees

We are trying ___hire new employees every day. New positions open constantly and we just can not fill the positions fast enough. Many of our new hires come ___ a third party head hunting firm. Even they can not keep up with the demand. The pandemic has changed the employment landscape and have ___ make changes ___ remain competitive in our industry. Most of our starting salaries range ___ $45,000 ___ $55,000. This may not be enough___ attract the talent we need. We received an invitation ___ governmental working group ___ give our opinion on the worker shortage. We are all eager ___ participate and share our honest opinions.

LIVEWORKSHEETS