

- | | |
|--------------------|---|
| 1. yell | a. (phr.v.) To deal with a problem or disagreement in order to repair a relationship. |
| 2. reliable | b. (phr.v.) To follow another's lead specially in going from one place to another. |
| 3. patch things up | c. (adj.) Deserving trust, dependable. |
| 4. shoplifting | d. (adj.) Not wanting to do something and therefore slow to do it. |
| 5. plaster | e. (adj.) Rich, wealthy. |
| 6. stepladder | f. (n.) The illegal act of taking goods from a store without paying for them. |
| 7. tag along | g. (v.) To shout or make a loud noise, usually when angry, in pain or excited. |
| 8. well-off | h. (n.) A piece of equipment with steps that can stand on its own and can be folded for carrying. |
| 9. derelict | i. (adj.) To describe places that are not cared for and/or in a bad condition. |
| 10. reluctant | j. (n.) A substance that becomes hard as it dries most commonly used in buildings and for medical situations. |