

Writing

Complete the following task. Write at least 60 words.

Situation:

Your friend John has written an e-mail to you. She wants some information about the most common transportation from different countries for his article.

Write an e-mail giving him information about popular transportation in your country, your favourite one and why.

Your writing should be friendly and well-organized.

