Listening Exercise

Listen to the dialogues and complete the spaces with the adjective you hear.

Man: Tell me about your town!
Woman: My town is a _____ place to live. It is not expensive, but it is not_____ either. It is an affordable place to live.

Man: What is the capital city like?
Woman: The city is very_____. The streets are clean and only a few places are dirty. The park is really green and beautiful. Most buildings are_____, so we have great views of the_____ mountains.

Man: How are the people at your work?
Woman: The people are nice and_____, but most people are very busy. People here are not lazy at all. Everyone works very_____. Some people are vain though. They worry about fashion too much.

Man: How is the food here?
Woman: The food here is very_____, and it is very healthy. It is easy to get fat, but most people are fit because they are so busy.

Man: What is your apartment like?
Woman: My building is a nice place to live. It is on a very_____street, but my neighbor is very_____. He is very strange.

Man: Why do you say that?
Woman: He is very moody. Some days he is nice. Some days he is mean. He is really old, and I am_____, so maybe that is the problem. Still, I am jealous of him. He has a nice dog. I want a dog. I feel lonely sometimes, and a dog can make me_____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS