Hi Jim,

Mark told me that you'd like to see me tomorrow, but tomorrow my friend Monica is arriving at 2 p.m. I'm having dinner with her. Then at 5 p.m. we're going to the theatre, and after that she's giving me a lift home, so I probably won't be there until about 8 p.m. I know that 8.30 is quite late, but please let me know if it isn't too late for you to meet.

Tom

Dear Matt,

You won't believe it! Yesterday I was talking to my parents about my holidays this year and you know what? – they agreed to pay for my trip to Japan! I'm so excited because I'm going to visit Tokyo. On a sadder note, I'll also visit the areas that were hit by the tsunami in 2011. I'm also thinking about going to Hiroshima – where the first atom bomb was dropped – and its famous Peace Park. I can't wait!

Dear Benjamin,

I still haven't decorated my room but I must say that I'm also counting on you in this matter. I do hope that you will help me rearrange all the furniture in my new place. Your room after all the changes you made looks absolutely fantastic, and it's hard to believe that there are still just your old things in the room! I'd really appreciate it if you could help me.

Tekst 1

Hi,
You asked me about the film I saw yesterday. For me, it is the sort of story which focusses on life values such as love, faith, hope, friendship and heroism. It touched my heart so much that I almost cried at the end, when one of the heroes dies. I must say that it is really hard to put my feelings into words after having watched the film, because the word "touched" seems inadequate...

Tekst 2

Mia
I think that the job you did at home, preparing for dad's party, was absolutely great. I would never have expected that things could have been done in a such perfect way! Dad's birthday cake was so delicious that there wasn't any left – everybody wanted a second slice! And those little sandwiches – they were simply miniature pieces of art! In my opinion, it was Dad's best birthday party ever...

I've finally got a summer job. I'm working at a new café that's opened just around the corner. My duties include serving the customers and cleaning the tables. Sometimes, I also make the tea and coffee. I'm working here part time – just on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, but if you ask me, it's one of the advantages of the job because I don't have to work long hours and, with the tips I get, I can earn quite a lot. What about you? Have you decided to work in the music shop you mentioned when we met last time? Write soon,
Martha
