Dear Pam,

Yesterday I _____ to the cinema with my boyfriend. We _____ a science fiction film. I _____ it very much because the special effects _____ very bad. My boyfriend and I usually _____ to the cinema. We always see science fiction or actions movies because my boyfriend _____ them. I prefer romantic stories or comedies, because they _____ so violent. Yesterday's movie _____ about an imaginary planet where plants started a war. It _____ a very good story, in my opinion. Fortunately, after the movie we _____ dinner at a nice restaurant. We _____ traditional food from India. It's very spicy!

What about you? Are you studying for your final exams?

Write soon and tell me.

Love,

Madison

Hi Jan!

How _____ you? Here we are in Tokyo! A Japanese school invited us to do an exchange. The headteacher met us at the airport on Monday. Then we _____ to the school by taxi. I _____ very surprised because they drive on the left in Japan. At the school we met the Japanese students and we _____ tea with them. They were very friendly and I _____ the tea very much. In the evening we _____ a sumo match. Sumo is 2.000 years old but the rules are four centuries old. In those days, there were women sumo wrestlers. On Tuesday we _____ around the collage and then it was time for our Japanese class. I love _____ in Japanese - it's so funny! I _____ a little poem yesterday and my teacher liked it very much. I _____ sushi right now. I love it but Mark _____ it so he is having fish and vegetables.

How about your holidays? Did you have a good time in Buenos Aires?

I hope to see you soon.

Love,

Mandy
