Hi Kirsty,

I have to tell you about my holiday. I'm going to play basketball with my friends in the USA, and I'm [1] going to / not going to study because it's a holiday! In Canada, I'm [2] going to / not going to stay at my friend's house because I'm going to go camping. Then I'm going to swim in the sea in Ecuador and I'm [3] going to / not going to learn about the past in Egypt when I visit the pyramids. I'm [4] going to / not going to have fun! I'm sorry you have to go to school next week. Don't worry. Remember you're [5] going to / not going to have a holiday too – you're going to see me in July! ☺

Love,
Julia
