

I. Look through the newspaper index. Say what topics this issue covers.

CONTENTS
News	Features	Markets
European News. . . 2	Editorial 1	Foreign
International	Business 5	Exchanges 13
News 6	Technology 7
World Trade	Management 8	Gold
News 11	Arts 9	Markets 13, 14
UK News. 3	TV and Radio. . . 10
Sports. 6	Letters 12	Currency
Weather 11		Exchange. 15

II. Use the newspaper index in task I and answer the questions below. Name the section where you can find the information and the page number it appears.

1. Where can you look for results of last basketball games?

2. Where can you find out if you need to wear your raincoat tomorrow?

3. Where can you find the programme of tonight's TV shows?

4. Where can you find the editor's opinion of current events?

5. Where can you read the readers' opinions?

6. Where can you find information about the innovations in methods and processes used in the production of goods and services?

7. Where can your father or mother read the information on business issues?

III. Put the verbs in brackets into the correct tense form.

1. They usually (to publish) their comments on different topics in the newspaper.
2. He (to collect) all these discs and tapes for years.
3. In ancient times news (to come) from travellers.
4. What modern electronic and print media you (to know)?
5. We (to visit) the international news agency now.
6. Nowadays computers (to develop) into a mass form of media.
7. The father just (to read) the latest issue of "The Facts".
8. What kind of news the editorial (to discuss)?
9. Steve (to find) all the information by 5 o'clock yesterday.

