

AFFIRMATIVE

To make the positive present perfect tense we use:

have / has + Vb - past participle

Choose the correct form.

Positive

I have played

you _____ worked

he _____ written

she _____ walked

it _____ rained

we _____ travelled

they _____ studied

Positive Short Form

I've played

you' _____ worked

he' _____ written

she' _____ walked

it' _____ rained

we' _____ travelled

they' _____ studied

NEGATIVE

The negative is very simple too.

Have not / has not + Vb - past participle

Complete the negative short form.

Negative short form

I _____ eaten breakfast today

you _____ been to Asia

he _____ seen the new film

she _____ played tennis

it _____ snowed this winter

we _____ slept all night

they _____ tried the food

INTERROGATIVE

To ask questions, put have or has in front of the subject.

Have / has + subject + Vb - past participle

Complete.

'Yes / No' Questions

_____ I missed the bus?

_____ you visited London?

_____ he worked as a waiter before?

_____ she met John?

_____ it been cold this week?

_____ we arrived too early?

_____ they studied English grammar before?

PAST PARTICIPLE

Complete the table with the past participle.

INFINITIVE	PAST PARTICIPLE	INFINITIVE	PAST PARTICIPLE
To have		To study
To be		To work
To know		To play
To eat		To try
To sleep		To visit
To see		To miss
To write		To arrive
To fly		To snow

