

How lucky can one guy be?

I never to Paris, France
I never how to ballroom dance
But she still me the chance
How lucky can one guy be?

I never a load-o-dough
I never to a Broadway show
But to her, I'm the original Romeo
How lucky can one guy be?

Her other boyfriends and the hopeful men
Call her on the telephone
But at the end of the night, she me tight
And I the one her home

I never a playoff game
I never a lot of fortune or fame
But she loves me just the same
How lucky can one guy be?

Her other boyfriends and the hopeful men
Call her on the telephone
But at the end of the night, she's holding me tight
And I'm the one takin' her home

I never like Gregory Peck
I never with the hip jet set
But she the towel in yet
How lucky can one guy be?
