

Formative test: 4.21 Factual Report Text (Writing Skill)

Please watch the video and rearrange the jumbled sentences into a good order of factual report text based on the factual report text in the video and put them in the correct column of the generic structures below!

Sunflowers can grow up to 3 metres tall.
Sunflowers have a large flower head that can be up to 30 cm wide.
Some flowers originated in the Americas and they were grown to use the seeds for food.
They grow best in fertile wet, well-drained soil with a lot of mulch.
The petals are bright yellow, although some varieties are orange or red.
Sunflowers are generally hardy plants. It's important that they are not over-watered.
They are commonly known as sunflowers.
The botanical name for the sunflowers is helianthus.
The stem is rough and hairy while the leaves are large and rough.
They need full sunlight to grow well.
It is one of the flowers from the famous "Asteraceae" species.
The Greek word "helios" means sun, and "anthos" means flower.

Put the answers here!

Title	Sunflowers
General Classification
Description	