1.Why is Alec often in the principal's hot seat?
a. His teacher catch him reading rather than participating in class.
b. He often fight in class
c. He is always talking with his classmates.
2. Read this and answered how many pronouns can you find in this paragraph

> A bright red plastic chair sat in the hallway outside the door of the principal's office. This chair was known as the Hot Seat, and at nine-fifteen on a Tuesday morning, Alec Spencer was in it. During his years at Balt Ridge Elementary School, Alec had visited the Hot Seat a lot — he had lost count somewhere in middle of fifth grade. This morning's visit was the very first time he'd been sent to the principal's office during sixth grade… except this was also the very first day of school, so Alec had been a sixth grader for less than forty-five minutes.

a.1

b.2

c.3

3. What does the principal decide to do about Alec's poor performance?

a. He would have to do summer class.

b. If he does not participate in class he will be required to attend a special study skill class.

c. He would have to attend a seminary in Kansas.

4. What the principal ask his teachers to do if they see him reading?

a. Watch him closely, and if they see him reading send him to the principal's office.

b. Remove the book from his hands

c. Ask him nicely to put his back to his backpack.

LIVEWORKSHEETS