PART I. Comprehension Check. Read the story. Then answer the questions that follow.

Cinderella, her dress nearly in rags, was crying quietly in a corner of her house. A fairy suddenly appeared.

"Why are you crying, dear?" she asked.

"I want to go to the prince's ball like my stepsisters but I do not have a proper dress to wear," replied Cinderella.

The fairy waved her magic wand, and all at once, Cinderella's dress was changed into a beautiful gown. On her feet were two glass slippers. Cinderella clapped in delight. She felt like a princess.

The fairy waved her wand at a bicycle outside Cinderella's house. There was a puff of smoke and a carriage appeared. "No off you go," the fairy told Cinderella. "But you must returned by midnight."

I promise," said Cinderella.
