

Name: _____

Date: _____

Types of Sentences by Structure CW

Select the appropriate sentence type for each sentence below.

1. When the painting was finished, Mofe cracked open the duck eggs.
2. She separated the yolks and set them aside.
3. To kill large animals, early hunters needed special tools.
4. Because early bands were always on the move to hunt animals and gather wild plants, they had no permanent year-round settlements.
5. As early societies grew, agriculture made more food available, but it also made living conditions more difficult.
6. The people of early societies were creative, so they tried to find ways around the difficulties faced.
7. In some places, agriculture increased the rate of population growth, yet there were deaths due to starvation and disease when drought and insect attacks killed crops and livestock.