Skating

This winter I _____ (learn) to skate! A friend of mine _____ (have) an extra pair of skates. He_____ (persuade) me to go skating with him one Saturday afternoon in February. I _____ (borrow) the skates and we _____ (go) skating!

It _____ (be) cold outside! We _____ (wear) hats, scarves and mitts to keep warm. He _____ (show) me how to put on the skates. He _____ (help) me walk onto the ice. He _____ (show) me how to start moving. He also _____ (teach) me how to stop!
I _____ (move) very slowly at first and lots of people _____ (skate) past me. When I _____ (fall) nobody _____ (laugh) at me. Instead, they _____ (help) me get back up. I _____ (keep) trying! Soon I _____ (feel) much better. I _____ (like) skating!

An evening out

Last night I _____ (go) to Nathan Phillips Square at City Hall in Toronto. It _____ (be) a beautiful summer evening. It _____ (be) warm and sunny. Lots of people _____ (be) there because of the Pan Am games celebrations.

I _____ (stand) and _____ (watch) the crowd. Many people _____ (sit) by the water. Some people _____ (talk) with friends or family. Lots of people _____ (take) pictures. A band _____ (play) music on the stage. People _____ (stand) by the stage. They _____ (listen) to the music. Others _____ (watch) the performance on large video screens. Everyone _____ (enjoy) the summer evening.

LIVEWORKSHEETS