

UNIT 4

A _____ is an expensive car that offers many comforts.

- van
- sports car
- SUV
- luxury car

A _____ is a small car that is not expensive.

- luxury car
- station wagon
- compact car
- sports car

A _____ usually has a powerful engine and can go very fast.

- compact car
- van
- station wagon
- sports car

A _____ is a car with a long body and room behind the back seat.

- compact car
- sports car
- convertible
- station wagon

You _____ the lights before you go to sleep.

- drop off
- turn off
- pick up
- turn on

When you _____ the engine, it starts running.

- turn off
- turn on
- drop off
- pick up

When you pick something _____, you get it and take it with you.

- up
- off
- on
- down

When you drop something _____, you leave it somewhere.

- on
- down
- off
- up

You push down on the _____ to move your car forward.

- emergency brake
- gas pedal
- steering wheel
- brake pedal

You use the _____ to stop your car.

- brake pedal
- steering wheel
- emergency brake
- gas pedal

You use the _____ to control the direction of the car.

- emergency brake
- steering wheel
- gas pedal
- brake pedal

You use the _____ when you park on a hill.

- steering wheel
- emergency brake
- brake pedal
- gas pedal

A _____ lets you see what is behind the left or right side of the car.

- bumper
- side-view mirror
- tire
- turn signal light

You use the _____ to tell other drivers that you're going to make a turn.

- bumper
- side-view mirror
- turn signal light
- horn

A _____ protects the front and rear of a car.

- turn signal light
- tire
- bumper
- side-view mirror

A car has four _____.

- tires
- trunks
- bumpers
- side-view mirrors