

Test Phrasal verbs

Exercise 1: Write the letter of your answer choice in the box.

Match the beginnings of sentences 1–12 with their endings a)–l).

- | | | |
|--|--------------------------|--|
| 1 In my job I deal | <input type="checkbox"/> | a) after the wholesale side. |
| 2 The Government is trying to cut | <input type="checkbox"/> | b) up with developments in the field. |
| 3 Here's the application form. Can you fill | <input type="checkbox"/> | c) with all the paperwork related to customer accounts. |
| 4 I deal with the retail side of the business, and Kate looks | <input type="checkbox"/> | d) without him on the negotiating team. |
| 5 I hope John gets better soon. We can't do | <input type="checkbox"/> | e) up all your files. |
| 6 Thanks for your call, and I look | <input type="checkbox"/> | f) in with the company culture and the other people in the department. |
| 7 First I'll talk about the history of our company, then I'll move | <input type="checkbox"/> | g) down on bureaucracy. |
| 8 Before you switch off the PC, make sure you back | <input type="checkbox"/> | h) on to our product range and markets. |
| 9 Some of the smaller companies in the market will probably be taken | <input type="checkbox"/> | i) over in the next few years. |
| 10 We need some new office chairs. I'll look | <input type="checkbox"/> | j) forward to meeting you on the tenth. |
| 11 These days you need to do a lot of reading to keep | <input type="checkbox"/> | k) through the catalogue and see what I can find. |
| 12 It's important to find a candidate who fits | <input type="checkbox"/> | l) in both sides and sign it at the bottom. |

Exercise 2

Rewrite each sentence by replacing the underlined words with a phrasal verb from the list below.

come across deal with go on go over look forward to pick up put back to run out of sort out take up

- I think I'm going to enjoy the weekend very much.
..... the weekend very much.
- The machine uses about four square metres of floor space.
The machine about four square metres of floor space.
- I think we'll have to delay the meeting until next week.
I think we'll have next week.
- They are not an easy company to do business with.
They are not an easy company
- Can you collect me from the airport in your car?
Can you from the airport?
- Sorry, I'm really busy, I have to continue writing these reports.
Sorry, I'm really busy, I have these reports.
- There's a small problem. We're just trying to put it right now.
There's a small problem. We're just trying now.
- Before we finish, I'd just like to summarise the main points again.
Before we finish, I'd just like the main points again.
- I've lost my pen. Let me know if you find it by chance.
I've lost my pen. Let me know if
- We'll have to continue the meeting tomorrow. We have no more time left.
We'll have to continue the meeting tomorrow. We have

Exercise 3

Complete the sentences with a word from the list below.

away back by down into off on over out through up

- 1 Hold a moment, that's not exactly what I said.
- 2 Clare will take my job when I change department next month.
- 3 I hate it when they put you on hold and you can't get
- 4 The total bill for four nights works at £380.
- 5 The factory will close next year. They're moving production to China.
- 6 It's going to be difficult to get with such a small budget.
- 7 Paola grew in a little village outside Venice.
- 8 I'll drop you at the station on my way home.
- 9 I'll look the problem and get to you tomorrow.
- 10 No, I don't have it any more. I threw it

Exercise 4

Complete the sentences with a phrasal verb from the list below.

catch up with cut down on drop in on face up to get back to get on with get around to look forward to move on to run out of

- 1 Will we have time to Gunter while we're in Berlin?
- 2 If you've all helped yourself to coffee, I think we should the meeting.
- 3 The report says we can a lot of waste in the factory.
- 4 I've tried everything and I've completely new ideas.
- 5 Sorry it's taken so long to answering your email.
- 6 Are you going out for a drink right now? I have a few things to do here in the office, but I'll you later.
- 7 Please feel free to contact me if you have any further questions. I hearing from you soon.
- 8 It's not going to be easy, but you have to your responsibilities.
- 9 Now I'd like to the next slide which shows our sales by region.
- 10 I need some time to look into this. Can I you later?

Exercise 5: Write the letter of your answer choice in the box.

Match the beginnings of sentences 1–12 with their endings a)–l).

- | | | |
|--|--------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| 1 My parents were quite strict and brought me | <input type="checkbox"/> | a) it back to Friday? |
| 2 When are you arriving? Would you like me to pick | <input type="checkbox"/> | b) it forward to Wednesday? |
| 3 When are you leaving? Would you like me to drop | <input type="checkbox"/> | c) up in a very traditional way. |
| 4 Peter? Any comments? Would you like to come | <input type="checkbox"/> | d) off the lights when you leave? |
| 5 Would you make sure you turn | <input type="checkbox"/> | e) up smoking. |
| 6 I can't make the meeting on Thursday. Can we bring | <input type="checkbox"/> | f) you off? |
| 7 I can't make the meeting on Thursday. Can we put | <input type="checkbox"/> | g) you up? |
| 8 Yes, it is a strange word. Have you tried looking | <input type="checkbox"/> | h) off when we entered a tunnel. |
| 9 I hope the cost of our raw materials will come | <input type="checkbox"/> | i) in here? |
| 10 I'll try and find her. Can you hold | <input type="checkbox"/> | j) on for a moment? |
| 11 Hello? Are you there? I think we were cut | <input type="checkbox"/> | k) it up in a dictionary? |
| 12 My doctor says I should give | <input type="checkbox"/> | l) down a little now. |